Forensic Science Fields and Careers

Directions: Match the following fields within forensic science to their correct description.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Career</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>____ 1. Anthropologist</td>
<td>A. Usually the first person to arrive at the crime scene</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>____ 2. Pathologist</td>
<td>B. Uses bugs to determine time of death</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>____ 3. Toxicologist</td>
<td>C. Determines mental capacity of defendant on trial</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>____ 4. Entomologist</td>
<td>D. Identifies evidence and links it to suspect</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>____ 5. Odontologist</td>
<td>E. Performs autopsies to determine cause and time of death</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>____ 6. Police officer</td>
<td>F. Examines bones to determine physical characteristics of person</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>____ 7. Forensic Psychologist</td>
<td>G. Checks body fluids for controlled substances and toxins</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>____ 8. Criminologist</td>
<td>H. Tries, defends, or judges criminals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>____ 9. Engineer</td>
<td>I. Examines the remains of jaws and teeth to identify the deceased</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>____ 10. Lawyer</td>
<td>J. Reconstructs accidents or structural failures</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
11. What profession would most likely be the first to get to a crime scene?

12. Which professions would be responsible for determining the time of death? What might they do to determine the time of death? (Write ALL that apply).

13. Which professions would be responsible for determining the EXACT identity of a victim? What might they do to determine the identity? (Write ALL that apply).

14. Once a murder has occurred, which profession is legally responsible for the body?